Global resources local knowledge

With renewed optimism and a focus on the emerging world, executives around the globe are re-imagining growth. They're reshaping strategies and operating models to achieve it. Companies are rethinking how to build cultures and capabilities for innovation; how they identify and fill key skills gaps with talent across the globe; and how to work with governments to address some of the biggest social and environmental challenges the business world faces.

Our powerful, far-reaching connections offer measurable benefit to our clients. Wherever your business takes you in the world, we're connected to a PKF office nearby.

Connect to a world of value

PKF North America is proof of the principle that “the whole is greater than the sum of its parts.” By sharing knowledge, expertise and best practices, the leading independent accounting firms that make up PKF North America can operate with confidence.

PKF North America member firms help each other navigate the currents of change in both domestic and international arenas, providing insights and support for all of your emerging opportunities.

In addition, thanks to an affiliation with PKF International, our ability to connect in new and larger arenas is instantly expanded – with access to 3,000 partners in 125 countries at more than 245 member firms.

Advance to the next level

Our professionals are dedicated to serving you and your business. Through PKF North America, we are able to take advantage of industry-focused learning and professional development opportunities. By taking part in these programs, our partners and staff stay up-to-date on the latest compliance standards, tax laws, accounting and auditing regulations and business and industry trends.

You stand to benefit from what our firm has to offer:

- Years of experience in delivering tax, accounting, auditing and consulting service.
- In-depth knowledge built on a foundation of continuing professional education and industry-specific learning and development programs.
- Reach that will take you across town, throughout the country or around the world.

These are the types of credentials and client service capabilities our firm takes pride in, and what our clients have come to expect.

Global focus

We're your neighbors, with local ownership, local interests and international connections. You need a firm that can respond to your needs promptly. Because we are owned, operated and managed locally, we're always nearby to help. Just like you, our partners and staff live and work right here, so we understand the local business and economic environment as well as opportunities and challenges within our community.

As economies begin to rebound at varying speeds, boundless opportunities are emerging for companies to accelerate in their markets. By leveraging the collective services of PKF NA member firms you'll be assured you're poised for success – whether your operations are cross-town, cross-country, or cross continental.

We focus on solutions for every stage of your business. Our clients tell us our innovative, experienced and entrepreneurial-minded professionals provide valuable advice for their toughest financial challenges. Today, quality service is not a given. That's why we go further to connect you to a world of value.
