

How Much Is Your Business Worth?

Hutchinson and Bloodgood LLP's accredited business valuation consultants help you answer that question, whether in the context of gifting and estate planning, a merger or acquisition, a buy-sell agreement, liquidation or reorganization of your business, conversion of your "C" corporation to an "S" corporation, or financing. Our business valuations give you the credible results you need to move forward.

Credibility and Good Judgement

Our business valuations are backed by extensive research and sound business judgment. We complete a thorough analysis of your business, conduct research into comparable sales and industry trends, and apply the three appraisal approaches, market, income, and asset approach, to the extent appropriate. Pertinent financial, tax, economic, and industry data are analyzed and interpreted to arrive at a reasonable estimate of the value of your business so you can make informed decisions.

Experience You Can Trust

Our Business Valuations Group is experienced in appraising a wide range of closely-held small and medium-size entities including manufacturers, professional firms, wholesalers, retailers, service firms, family limited partnerships, LLCs, and tenant in common interests. This experience and insight into a variety of business entities ensures that your business valuation report is based on informed knowledge, providing you the credible and reliable information you need.
