Tanya Scott has acquired the business acumen necessary to help her clients succeed. She is a passionate and enthusiastic individual and provides innovative and valuable solutions for the unique tax and accounting issues faced by business owners of mid-market companies. Tanya uses her creativity and expertise to strategically help clients with business growth strategies, tax planning, owner transition planning, and business value maximization. She listens to her clients, understands what their needs are, and offers options and solutions to help them meet their financial needs and reach the next level of success.

Tanya has worked in the public accounting industry since 1989. After working at a family-owned international consulting firm, she searched for a firm with strong resources and capabilities. Tanya found it in Hutchinson and Bloodgood LLP, and joined the Firm in 2001, becoming Partner in 2006.

Tanya is involved with many organizations including the American Institute of CPAs, the California Society of CPAs, and the Business Enterprise Institute's Network of Exit Planning Professionals. She is a Board Member of the Employment & Community Options Microenterprise Program Committee, was Past President of the San Diego Chapter of the Western Pension & Benefits Conference, a Past Director of the San Diego Chapter of CalCPA and a Past Member of the Scripps Health Foundation Gift Planning Advisory Board.

Tanya graduated Cum Laude from Utah State University.
