Often described as a refreshing and personable accountant, Kari McGee excels at public accounting and using her tax experience to provide financial guidance for individuals, families, small businesses and closely held companies. Kari provides solutions to diverse tax situations and helps businesses ranging from small sole-proprietors to large, multi-million dollar corporations. With a focus on tax planning and compliance, Kari strongly believes in consistently meeting client objectives, and empathetically helping individuals through different scenarios with appropriate financial planning.

Prior to joining Hutchinson and Bloodgood LLP, Kari spent eight years at a CPA firm in Missouri specializing in the Construction industry. She joined the Firm in 2003 and is a member of the Firm's Tax Committee.

Kari is involved with various organizations including the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, California Society of CPAs, the Firm's Tax Committee, and is a Board Member and Treasurer of the Rotary Club of Watsonville.

Kari is a Graduate of Sonoma State University.
