

Lauren Minjung Lee, CPA, MBT Partner

Lauren Lee joined Hutchinson and Bloodgood in 2005 and became a Partner in October 2010.

Ms. Lee's prior experience includes being a tax manager at Deloitte, where she specialized in income taxation of corporations, partnerships, and individuals. She managed national businesses with multi-state presence, and other entities with international operations and compliance needs (both inbound and outbound). Her client base included banks, mutual funds, manufacturers, real estate developers, service providers, and high-net-worth individuals who had foreign and multistate income tax reporting requirements. Lauren also has extensive experience with publicly traded companies and with the corporate income tax provision and the related tax footnotes for the SEC's 10K and 10Q reports.

Lauren has provided services such as strategic tax planning, transaction reviews, mergers and acquisitions tax accounting, and audit defense and resolution.

Lauren currently is a member of the Firm's Tax Committee, and heads the Firm's Tax Incentive Niche.
