

Mark Hennelly, CPA
Partner, Hutchinson and Bloodgood LLP

mhennelly@hbllp.com
550 N. Brand Blvd., 14th Floor
Glendale, CA 91203

As a trusted advisor, Mark Hennelly believes in offering a high level of personalized service with direct interaction, and being proactive and responsive. With more than 30 years of audit and compliance experience, Mark and his staff are knowledgeable and they excel at intuitively identifying opportunities and risks for clients. He collaborates with clients and provides innovative financial advice to numerous industries, including hospitality and leisure, not-for profits and entertainment. In addition to helping clients structure their companies for growth, Mark provides residual audits, participation audits, and royalty compliance on behalf of various entertainment industry associations and Guilds.

Prior to joining Hutchinson and Bloodgood, LLP, Mark was an officer/shareholder with PKF California. He joined the Firm in 2012 as a partner, and is a member of the Firm's Royalty and Contract Audit Team.

Mark is an active member of the community and involved with numerous organizations including American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, Hospitality Financial & Technology Professionals (HFTP), and the Board of Directors Casa De Las Amigas.

Mark received a Bachelor of Arts degree in Business Economics from California State University, Northridge.

