Peter Weir has more than thirty years of experience providing clients with high level expertise in tax planning, compliance and financial reporting. Working with closely held and family businesses, Peter uses his depth and breadth of public accounting knowledge to help clients increase operational efficiencies, profits and wealth. He listens attentively, asks the right questions, and tailors financial solutions to fit client needs. Peter believes in diligently earning his clients trust, and they rely on him to provide accurate and sound business planning solutions.

Prior to joining Hutchinson and Bloodgood LLP, Peter was a Principal in his own practice, and oversaw the day-to-day operations of his family's specialty contracting business. He joined the Firm in 2005, was elected Partner in 2006, chairs the Firm's Construction industry practice and is Partner In Charge of the Glendale Office. Peter enjoys spending time outdoors and is an avid cyclist.

Peter is involved in various organizations including the Firm's Executive Committee, the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, California Society of Certified Public Accountants, and serves as a board member and advisor to various local non-profit organizations.

Peter earned a Bachelor of Arts in Business Economics from the University of California, Santa Barbara and holds a Construction Industry Technician Certification.
